School bus safety

School bus travel is very safe in Ontario. Injuries and fatalities, which are very rare, happen more often outside the school bus as students are boarding and leaving the bus or crossing the street.

It's important for motorists, parents, caregivers and students to know how to keep children safe when they are on and around school buses.

Drivers: know the rules

When driving on a road WITHOUT a median:

- drivers travelling in both directions must stop for a stopped school bus with its upper red lights flashing
- when you approach the bus from the front, stop at a safe distance to let children get on or off the bus and cross the road
- don't move forward until the red lights have stopped flashing or the bus begins to move

When driving on a road WITH a median:

- traffic coming from the opposite direction is not required to stop.

Fines

Drivers can be charged if they pass a stopped school bus with its upper red lights flashing:

- First offence: $400 to $2,000 and six demerit points..
- Each following offence: $1,000 to $4,000, six demerit points and possible jail time (up to six months)

Vehicle owners can be charged if their vehicle illegally passes a stopped school bus, even if they weren't driving.

Students: Stay safe

School bu travel is very safe in Ontario. Injuries and fatalities, which are very rare, happen more often outside the school bus as students are boarding and leaving the bus or crossing the street.

Parents, help keep your children safe by talking about bus safety with them.

When you board or leave a bus

- Be at the bus stop before the bus comes.
- Wait in a safe place well back from the edge of the road - don't play in ditches or on snow banks.
- Stay out of the DANGER ZONE. If you can touch the bus, you're too close. U se 10 giants steps to take you out of the DANGER ZONE, and make sure you and the bus driver can see each other.
- Always cross the road in front of the bus, never behind.
- Look all ways and wait for the driver to signal before you cross in front of a bus.
- Walk at least 10 big steps from the front of the bus.
- Enter or exit the bus in single file. Never push or shove.
- Walk - never run - across the road.
- NEVER stop to pick up anything that you may have dropped in the DANGER ZONE. Ask an adult or the bus driver to help.

While on the bus

- Find a seat right away. Stay seated, facing forward at all times.
- Don't put things in the aisle.
- Never distract the bus driver. Always follow his or her instructions.
- Don't eat or drink.
- Don't yell, push people or throw things.
- Keep your arms and head inside the bus.

Reporting Drivers Who Don't Stop

You can report a vehicle that doesn't stop properly for a school bus to police immediately by calling 911.

You can also go to the nearest police station and file a complaint. The police will ask you:

1. The date and time of the incident.
2. The vehicle's make, model, colour and licence number.
3. Who was driving?
4. Was the bus a "chrome yellow" school bus with the words "School Bus" at both the front and rear of the bus?
5. Was it a small or a large school bus?
6. Was the school bus stopped?
7. Were the upper red lights of the school bus flashing while it was stopped?
8. Were there passengers boarding or leaving the school bus?
9. Did the vehicle pass the school bus from behind or was it coming toward the bus in the opposite lane?

Other details can also help, such as witness accounts or photographs.

Treaty of Fort Pitt: 240th Anniversary Commemoration

Saturday, September 29, 2018
11:00 am - 5:00 pm
Fort Pitt Museum

Commemorate the 240th anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Fort Pitt with living historians that will include members of the Delaware Tribe of Indians.

Daytime programming will include reenactments of treaty negotiations and opportunities to interact with historical interpreters to learn about 18th century life and diplomacy at Fort Pitt.

Evening programming will include a lecture by Dr. David Preston, followed by traditional stomp and social dances led by Delaware Indians that will be open to the public.

Treaty of Fort Pitt

Fort Pitt, a strategic military outpost built in 1759, hosted many treaties between the colonial government and native people living in what was then known as the Ohio Country in the 18th century. One of these treaties, the 1778 Treaty of Fort Pitt, was the first official treaty between the newly-formed United States of America and any American Indian nation.

The treaty sought an alliance with the Delaware, including access for the U.S. military through the Ohio Country to attack the British at Detroit. The treaty ultimately failed within months of its singing in September, leading to a doomed military campaign for the U.S. This split the allegiance of the Delaware Nation and further strained relationships between the United States and American Indians in the Ohio Country.

Admission

With the exception of Dr. Preston's lecture (more information and registration available online), all Treaty of Fort Pitt programming is free and open to the public.

For a continuing look at the history of Fort Pitt and Pittsburgh in the 18th century, please purchase museum admission and enjoy the Fort Pitt Museum.
