To our Eelunaapeewii Lahkeewiit Superstars of the 2017 North American Indigenous Games: TONS of CONGRATULATIONS to the Delaware Nation Athletes that participated in these games that were held in the Toronto and Six Nations area last week. The news of their achievements and success has come with great pride from our community. All of your hard work at practices, your commitment and dedication of your sport has paid off.

We know you had lots of fun and made new friends that will last a lifetime.

Everyone did a great job in representing our community and the Ontario Indigenous teams. So on behalf of our community and the Delaware Nation Council, we extend our congratulations on your well deserved success. You did us PROUD!

Chief Denise Stonefish

P.S. And, lets not forget the parents and families who are behind the scenes supporting these athletes.
