Southwest Ontario Aboriginal Health Access Centre

Welcoming Our Newest Team Member

Brooke Wuerch is a Nurse Practitioner who will be providing primary health care services at the SOAHAC clinic in Windsor and at the Health Centre in Moraviantown.

We are proud to share that Katrina, who has been seeing patients at the Health Centre over the last several months, has accepted another position with SOAHAC on the newly formed Palliative Care Team in London. Throughout January, Brooke and Katrina will both be at the Health Centre to see patients and transition services.

We are also excited to welcome Brooke, who is a recently graduated Nurse Practitioner from the University of Windsor.

"I began my nursing career in Long Term Care where I spent one year. Wanting to gain experience and learn more, I entered acute care and called the neurology/neurosurgery unit at Hotel Dieu Grace Hospital home for over three years. Seeking additional growth, knowledge, and change, I began training to work in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) where I spent over four years. Working in critical care opened other opportunities for me such as teaching the Trauma Nursing Care Course to other nurses on a casual basis.

I've wanted to be a Nurse Practitioner since the day I started nursing school and eventually enrolled in the full time program. Today, I am very excited to start this next chapter of my career with SOAHAC and look forward to meeting everyone.

Outside of nursing, I am an auntie, a fiancé, a daughter, granddaughter and a sister. I like to kayak, ski and travel, but most importantly spend time with my family."

If you and/or your family wish to visit the nurse practitioner or the doctor, please stop by the Moraviantown Health Centre during clinic hours (Tuesdays and Thursdays 8:30-4:30), or call the SOAHAC clinic at 226-494-1787 to book an appointment.

Thunderbird Partnership Foundation congratulates Carol Hopkins

BOTHWELL, ON (January 8, 2018) – The Thunderbird Partnership Foundation congratulates Carol Hopkins on her appointment to the Order of Canada, announced Friday, December 29, 2017 by Her Excellency the Right Honourable Julie Payette, Governor General of Canada.

Carol Hopkins is of the Lenape Nation at Moraviantown, Ontario, who has spent more than 20 years in the field of First Nations addictions and mental health. Hopkins serves as the Executive Director of the Thunderbird Partnership Foundation, where she works tirelessly to champion a paradigm shift in Indigenous addictions and mental health support.

“Carol Hopkins is the most deserving recipient of the Order of Canada, as she is and continues to be an inspiration to us all for her dedication and commitment in the field of Indigenous addictions and mental wellness, both here in Canada and beyond,” says Chief Austin Bear, President of the Thunderbird Partnership Foundation Board of Directors. “On behalf of the board and staff at the Thunderbird Partnership Foundation, we wish to express how proud we are of Carol, and congratulate her on this most prestigious award.”

Carol Hopkins

Hopkins has co-chaired national initiatives known for best practice in national policy review and development, resulting in the: First Nations Mental Wellness Continuum Framework (FNMWC), the Honouring Our Strengths: A Renewed Framework to Address Substance Use Issues Among First Nations People in Canada, the Indigenous Wellness Framework, and best practice guidelines for culturally-based inhalant abuse treatment. Hopkins has also inspired the development of Thunderbird Partnership Foundation’s Native Wellness Assessment™, the first such instrument of its kind to psychometrically validate the effectiveness of cultural interventions on wellness outcomes over time.

Hopkins holds both a Masters of Social Work Degree from the University of Toronto and a degree in sacred Indigenous Knowledge, equivalent to a PhD in western-based education systems. Hopkins also holds a sessional faculty position in the School of Social Work at Kings University College at Western University.

For more information and to schedule an interview with Carol Hopkins, contact Sherry Huff, at 1-519-401-5166, shuff@thunderbirdpf.org. Visit www.thunderbirdpf.org, to learn more about the Thunderbird Partnership Foundation.
