XIV. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Facilities for the Election

Arrangements will be made for a place where the Deputy Returning Officer (DRO) and the Polling Clerk (PC) can be contacted by the electors or candidates during the election period.

The DRO must also arrange for the use of facilities for the poll. These facilities will be located on the reserve and must provide suitable access for those who are physically disabled.

(Note: when posting the notice for the poll, the place where it is to be held must be specified in advance.)

2. Preparing Ballots

Ballot papers must be prepared, separately listing the names of the candidates for chief and the names of the candidates for councillor in the order of nomination. The Deputy Returning Officer will keep a record of the total number of ballots that have been printed.

When preparing ballot papers the DRO must ensure that the name of the candidate and spelling of each name is correct and accurately reflect the persons who were nominated.

3. Other Supplies

For the poll the DRO must obtain one ballot box for each place where voters will be received. The ballot boxes must be capable of being locked and sealed. The DRO must also provide all other relevant election material such as pencils for marking ballots, voting directions, and compartments in which electors can mark their ballots privately and secretly.

4. Location of the Polling Booths

The compartment at each polling place must be located in an area which is easily accessible and where the electors can mark their ballots without being watched by any other person.

5. Duration of Poll

The DRO and PC must be in attendance at each of the polls at all times during the polling. The polls on polling day open at 9:00 a.m. (local time). They must remain open until 7:00 p.m. Any voters who are inside a polling place before the poll closes are allowed to cast their ballot.

6. Before Opening the Poll

Immediately before the poll opens, the DRO will examine the ballot boxes in the presence of witnesses to ensure that they are empty. The boxes are then locked and must remain sealed for the duration of the poll.

7. Candidates Agents

Each candidate is entitled to a maximum of two agents in a polling place at any given time. The agents who are in attendance are there to observe the election proceedings. If they are present before the poll opens they may witness that the ballot boxes are empty. They may also be present at the counting of ballots after the poll is closed.

8. Issue of Ballot

Once the DRO or the PC has determined that a person is a qualified voter the DRO or PC can provide him/her with a ballot.

At this point the DRO or PC will initial it on the backside and fold it in a manner which will allow the initials to be seen. The voter, on receiving the ballot, will immediately go to the compartment to mark his/her ballot. Check off the voter's name on the voters' list to indicate that the voter has received a ballot. The voter may ask for instructions on how to vote. The instructions may be communicated verbally and they should also be posted in the polling compartment.

9. Return of Ballot

The voter will, upon leaving the polling compartment, immediately return to the DRO or PC and present the folded ballot. The DRO and PC must then, without unfolding the ballot, verify that it is the same ballot. Then, in the presence of the voter and anyone else who is there the DRO or PC will deposit the ballot in the ballot box.

10. Aiding an Elector

If a voter is unable to mark his own ballot as a result of physical inability, the DRO or PC may, at the voter's request, mark the ballot. The DRO or PC must mark the ballot according to the voter's instructions in the presence of any of the candidates' agents who are in attendance.

11. Spoiled Ballot

A voter upon returning from the polling compartment may exchange a ballot which can no longer be used for a new ballot. Upon receipt of the old ballot the DRO or PC will write the word "cancelled" on it and retain it. The DRO or PC will then issue a new ballot to the voter. The voter will immediately proceed again to the polling compartment to mark his/her ballot as previously indicated.

12. Forfeited Ballot

When a voter who has received a ballot refuses to vote, or who leaves the polling place without giving his ballot, loses his/her right to vote. The DRO or PC must mark the word "declined" on the voters list beside the person's name.

13.Obstruction of Voting

While a voter is marking their ballot it is unlawful for anyone else to interfere with them. It is also unlawful for anyone to obtain knowledge of how another person may have voted while they are in the polling place. The only exception would be in the case of a request for the DRO or PC to mark a ballot.

14.Ending of Voting

At the designated time the polling place will promptly be closed. Any elector who is inside the polling place at closing time and who has not voted, may do so without delay.

15.Counting the Ballots

- The DRO will begin counting the ballots as soon as the poll is closed.
- Candidates, and those agents of candidates who were present at the close of the poll have the right to observe the counting procedure.
- The DRO will open the ballot box and count the ballot papers in such a way that anyone present can see how each ballot is marked.
- The Polling Clerk will keep score on the tally sheet, as the candidates' names are called.

16.Rejected ballot papers:

As each ballot paper is read the DRO may reject ballots for any of the following reasons:

- Ballot paper not supplied by DRO or PC
- Ballot paper marked "cancelled" or "declined";
- Ballot paper not marked for any candidate;
- Ballot paper marked for more than the maximum number of candidates that are to be elected. (NOTE: that a ballot which has less votes marked on it is acceptable;)
- Ballot paper upon which the elector has made any mark or writing through which the elector could be identified; and
- Ballot paper marked outside the circle of the name of the candidate.
- The DRO may reject only a portion of the ballot, accepting the balance of the ballot if properly filled out.

17. Objectionable Ballots

During the examination of the ballots a candidate or an agent may object to the decision concerning the acceptability of a ballot. If such an objection is raised, the reason should be marked on the back of the ballot in question. For the purpose of counting the votes on a questionable ballot the DRO's decision to accept or reject it stands.

18. Record of Votes

Only those ballots, or portions thereof, which have been accepted will now be counted. Total the votes cast for each of the candidates. Record also, the number of rejected ballots, accepted ballots, and unused ballots.

19. Declaration of Results and Tie Vote

As soon as the DRO has all the counted votes totalled he/she will publicly declare elected the candidates who received the most votes for each position until all the positions on council are filled. In the event of a tie vote, the method used to break the tie will be discussed with the candidates and determined by the DRO in advance of the polling day.

20. Notice and Statements of Results

Without delay the DRO must post in a noticeable place on the reserve a signed statement of the results showing the number of votes cast for each and all of the candidates.

21. The DRO will call for a motion to destroy the ballots after all appeals are presented.
